How to Resolve Conflict Like a Pro

Presenter
Julianna Christie

In our work with leaders, we've learned that conflicts provide an important springboard for us to self-advocate!

That said, few of us were taught how to resolve conflict skillfully and in a way that preserves relationships.

Join us as we explore how to address conflicts swiftly and effectively, using a reliable process. We'll learn how to distinguish facts from stories and practice a five-step process to resolve conflict.

Julianna Christie is Co-Founder and Chief Training Officer of Crafted Leadership, a leadership development consultancy that develops creative, influential leaders. She has spent over 20 years in corporate settings, successfully facilitating critical conversations and offering key insights that take global leaders to the next level. Her expertise in leadership development and organizational transformation has yielded her a reputation as an inspiring facilitator and trusted coach focused on integrity, collaboration, and innovation.
